No. 7—ST. ANNE'S CHURCH, MOSELEY.

HE most prominent landmark in Moseley is St. Anne's Church. Rising boldly from the brow of Park Hill, it is visible for miles around, and it presents a particularly striking picture as seen from Moor Green and Cannon Hill. It is graceful as well as conspicuous. From an architectural point of view it may be objected that the spire is somewhat stunted in proportion to the tower. The reason for this is that the tower was nearly completed before it was decided to add a
